

ABOUT JUNIOR LEAGUES OF CALIFORNIA SPAC (CALSPAC)

Founded in 1901, the Association of Junior Leagues International (AJLI) has evolved into one of the oldest, largest, and most effective women's volunteer organizations in the world, encompassing more than 125,000 women in over 295 Leagues in four countries. The Junior Leagues of California State Public Affairs Committee, also known as CalSPAC, represents the 17 Junior Leagues across California and is a non-partisan, volunteer organization involved in legislative advocacy for over 50 years.

CalSPAC Focus Areas

Health - Advocating for better access to quality health care and prevention programs that will improve mental and physical health of our community members

Education - Ensuring that all children and young adults receive educational opportunities that are developmentally appropriate, increase achievement, and lead to workplace marketability

Family Support - Advocating for programs and policies that promote the physical and emotional well-being of all families

Violence Prevention - Addressing the impact of violence in our communities through prevention, intervention and education

Anti-Human Trafficking - Ending human trafficking in all its forms and supporting policies and programs that stop human trafficking, advocate for victims, and educate the community at large

CalSPAC Impact

Since our founding in 1971, CalSPAC has both sponsored and supported numerous pieces of legislation within our five focus areas. We continue to seek out opportunities to improve and enhance California policies and programs that impact women, children, and families around our state.
